Terms and conditions

- Everyone should fill up the membership form in order to be an active member of Jubilee Worship House
- If you attend the church without filling up the membership form, means you are not regarded as a member of the church
- Every member is required to comply with the requirements of the church which is
 1. Paying of tithes
 2. Contributing in projects that are introduced in the church
 3. Offerings
 4. Attending services
 5. Attending the events of the church
- Failing to comply with these requirements will result in penalties
- Failing to attend church for 3 months in succession without any notice, you will be regarded as an ex-member of the church and that will mean if anything good or bad happens to you, the church won't be responsible of anything. We won't render any service for you unless you pay for the service
- Same will apply when you are in the church but you are not contributing anything at all. It means, when you need the service by the name of the church, you will need to pay for it, whether for funeral, wedding or whatever service you will need
- All benefits of the church should be enjoyed by those who are the members of the church and also comply according to the requirements
